

All-Terrain Ride

48 km

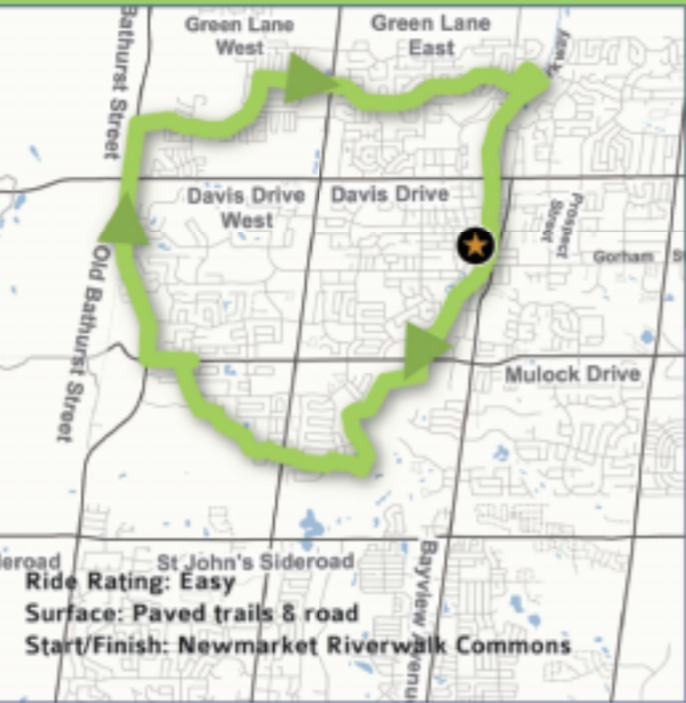

The ride begins at Lake Wilcox, the largest kettle lake on the Oak Ridges Moraine, a significant geological formation created by glacial activity dating back 12,000 years. Make your way to the rustic village of Kettleby. Explore the nearby Thornton Bales Conservation Area. Families will love Round the Bend Farm, a working farm with activities and farm animals. Complete your ride on the Nokidaa Trail. Nokidaa is an Ojibwa term meaning "walking together" and it can be a great place to cycle together too.

Tour de Holland

68 km

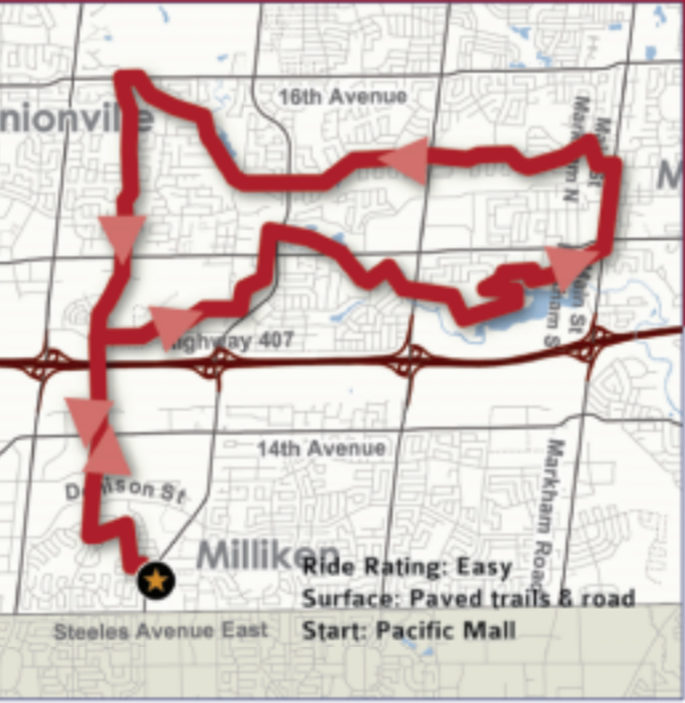

We all know that Holland is bike country, but did you know that you can cycle through a slice of Dutch-style farmland right here in Ontario? The Holland Marsh is comprised of 7,000 acres of reclaimed land first cultivated by 15 Dutch families in 1934. Their legacy left us with the scenic Holland Canal Road overlooking rich fields perfect for vegetable farming. Leave from King City and celebrate this "rural ride" with stops at the Apple Orchard Farm, Pine Farm Orchards and the rural farming town of Schomberg.
